Presents:

Tools for Processing Child Welfare Cases: A training for juvenile court staff

October 2, 2013

9:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Hall of Justice, Lansing, Michigan

This training will provide juvenile court staff with the tools necessary to process child welfare cases effectively. Participants will have an opportunity to work through case scenarios that illustrate common issues in a child welfare case. Presenters will cover various topics including: tips on how to properly draft court orders, juvenile guardianships, solutions for ethical dilemmas, and the implications of social media on child welfare cases. This training is perfect for court staff new to child welfare, as well as those looking for a refresher on best practices in case processing.

Target Audience: Juvenile court staff, including clerks, registers, and administrators.
